GOLDEN WARRIOR
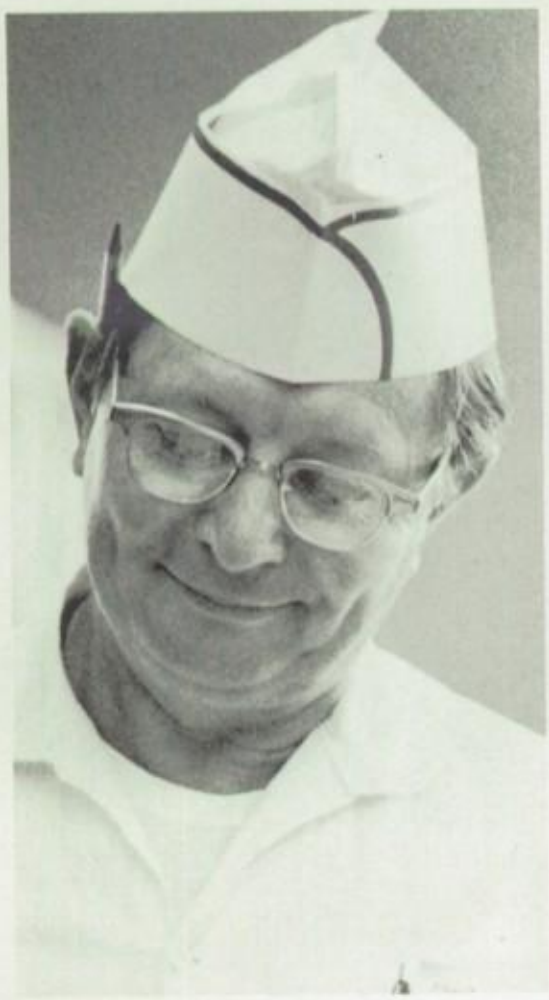
1982

Camden County Vocational and Technical Schools
Gloucester Township Campus
Sicklerville, New Jersey



IN MEMORIAM
ARTHUR BAALS

Few truly good men walk on the face of this Earth. If we are lucky enough to meet one, he should be considered as a rare gift. Such a man was Mr. Art Baals.

Those of us at C.C.V.T.S. who were close to him remember him as a warm, caring and giving man who never ceased to live life to the fullest. As a teacher, Mr. Baals prepared many a student for careers in the baking industry while building character within them so they could meet adult responsibilities. Colleagues remember him as a teacher dedicated to his job and as a man who had the determination to see his responsibilities through.

It is to Mr. Baals, friend, teacher and colleague that the 1982 Golden Warrior yearbook is dedicated. May this book serve us all as a reminder of a truly good man whom we miss a great deal.

The longer one lives
the more he learns.

1982 GOLDEN WARRIOR

The 1982 Golden Warrior Yearbook Staff has been guided with the dedication and crazy antics of its Editor-in-Chief Mark "The Retch" Fletcher. Actual page plans were the charge of Ralphie Moessner with Ron Walker in charge of copy and proofreading everything four times. Overseeing all this activity and chaos was none other than "Miss Annie" Cancelmo.

Of the many reasons for producing this yearbook, the main one is to provide graduating seniors with a permanent reminder of their last year at CCVTS. This staff hopes that this has been accomplished.

LITERARY

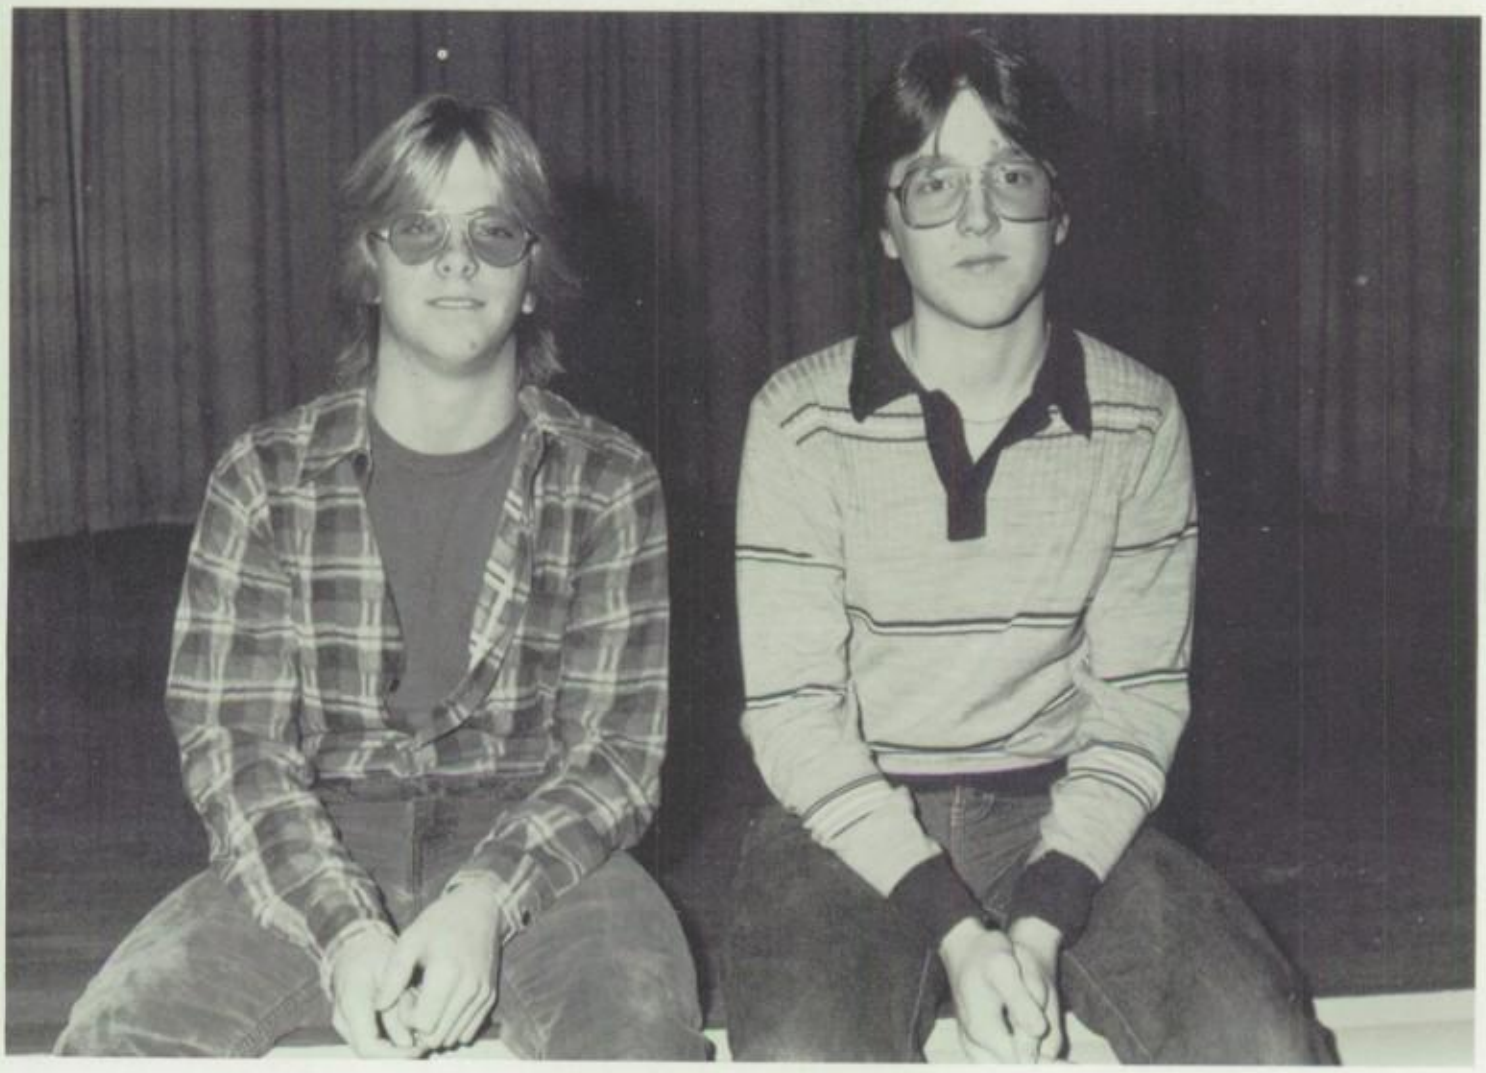
YEAR BOOK STAFF



Taking care of the financial side of the yearbook, the business staff of the 1982 Golden Warrior prowl the halls and malls for patrons, advertisers, and yearbook purchasers. Bob Friend acted as Business Manager with Gerhard Rausnitz as Sales Manager. Top awards go to Kathy Murray who outdid herself in selling large quantities of ads and yearbooks. Mrs. Elaine Morris presided over this monetary wheeling and dealing as the advisor.
